

GULFPORT RECREATION CENTER

The Gulfport Community Center was built in 1966, to replace the old community center now known as Scout Hall.

Documents

City of Gulfport Summer Recreation Program class listings, undated, pre-construction
Christmas Tree Lighting Program, undated, c. 1982

“The Community Center,” by Mary Drake and others, typewritten, undated

Letter to residents of Gulfport from John T. Robinson, Mayor, explaining financing and rates for the recreation building.

Cover of brochure showing architect’s drawing of the Community Center- Recreation Building

Program for Ribbon Cutting Ceremony at the Recreation Center, June 6, 2000, for Phase II improvements

Photos

Three photos of children’s activities

MULTI-PURPOSE SENIOR CENTER

Documents

Program for Dedication Ceremony in memory of Naomi Clymer, Gulfport Multi-Purpose Senior Center, October 11, 1983

Photos

Three photos of senior activities

GULFPORT NEIGHBORHOOD CENTER

Documents

Program for Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, July 3, 2004

Photos

Photocopy of photograph of building, new

