

FISHING

General Information

Typewritten and handwritten notes on fishermen and boatmen

Excerpt from Grismer, "Story of St. Petersburg," page 38

"Fishing Lines: Angler's Guide to Florida Marine Resources," D.E.P.

"Mullet Fishing," by R.E. Bozeman, typewritten, undated

"How Well Do You Know [saltwater fish]?" Florida Living, September, 1993, photocopy

Newspaper Articles

"Fishing Industry Booms At Clam Bayou," by Al Barker, St. Petersburg Times, December 3, 1944

"How Many Cans?" by Claudette Renney Dean, Gulfport Gabber, December 3, 1992, photocopy

"The Time Machine," by Anne L. Hall, Gulfport Gabber, undated, 1990s

"The Sea Folk: A Definitive History," by Lynne Brown, Bay Soundings magazine, February 14, 2005

"Huge mullet catch seized," by Terry Tomalin, St. Petersburg Times, December 13, 2005

Henry Hibbs

Excerpt from Grismer, "Story of St. Petersburg," page 80-1,85

Obituary, St. Petersburg Independent, March 8, 1950, photocopy

Article: "Fishing Once Our Living," St. Petersburg Independent, undated, photocopy

Article: "Early Fishing Tycoon." St. Petersburg Independent, January 28, 1965, photocopy

Article: "Fishing business brought a sea change to young city," by Scott Taylor Hartzell, St. Petersburg Times, undated

Obituaries

John "Frenchy" LaJoie, by Sadie Weidra, undated photocopy

Photos:

Netting

Harry Thorne

Mrs. Thorne and Miss Wilson

Nathan White and friends

Wissel family, 1954

Plus several black and white snapshots of fish and unidentified people